

Hilina'i Volleyball Club Player's Code of Conduct

SECTION I.

As a registered player of Hilina'i Volleyball Club (Hilina'i), I will:

1. Follow all rules, regulations and guidelines of Hilina'i.
2. Refrain from verbal, physical abuse, and/or intimidation of my coaches, chaperones, team parent(s), and team players. Violation of such action may result in permanent dismissal from Hilina'i.*
3. Respect all coach(es), chaperone(s), and team parent(s) at all times. Failure to do so will place the player on the first infraction and possible removal from Hilina'i. (See Section IV.)
4. Refrain from illegal transport or possession of illegal drugs or other illegal substances at all times during the volleyball season. Violation of such action may result in permanent dismissal from Hilina'i. There is zero tolerance for any of these infractions, and proper legal authority will be notified.*
5. Refrain from ingesting any illegal drugs or other illegal substances at all times. Transporting, possessing or ingesting of any illegal substances will result in immediate dismissal from Hilina'i. There is zero tolerance for any of these infractions, and proper legal authority will be notified.*
6. Refrain from physical damage or theft from a facility, other person's property, or the gym. Refrain from unauthorized entry into other person's property. Restitution will be part of any penalty imposed for such damage or theft.*
7. Refrain from possession of fireworks, ammunition, firearms or other weapons or any items or material, which by commonly accepted practices and principals, would be a hazard or harmful to other persons. Violation of such action may result in permanent dismissal from Hilina'i. There is zero tolerance for any of these infractions, and proper legal authority will be notified.*
8. Refrain from any action(s) considered to be an offense under the federal, state or local ordinances. Violation of such action may result in permanent dismissal from Hilina'i. There is zero tolerance for any of these infractions, and proper legal authority will be notified.*
9. Refrain from conduct, which is inappropriate as determined by comparison to normally accepted behavior and reflects poorly upon coach(es), chaperone(s), team parent(s), team members and Hilina'i Volleyball Club.

SECTION II

During tournament travel, I will:

1. Follow all guidelines as stated in Section I.
2. Follow all guidelines as set by the coaches, chaperones, and team parents during the tournament.
3. Refrain from entry into other players' rooms and/or property at all times during travel without prior approval from coach(es) and/or chaperone(s).
4. Follow all curfew rules as set by the coach(es) and/or chaperone(s).
5. Respect all property and/or premises during my season with Hilina'i. If caught damaging property, the player will make restitution to the owner, and be removed from further participation in the tournament. All players who are removed from the tournament, will remain with the team; however, will be unable to participate in any further games, unable to suit up with the team, will become a "team manager" and remain with the chaperone at all times once the game begins.*
6. Respect all coach(es), chaperone(s), and team parent(s) at all times. Failure to do so will place the player on the first infraction (see Section IV) and possible removal from further participation in the tournament. All players who are removed from the tournament, will remain with the team; however, will be unable to participate in any further games, unable to suit up with the team, will become a "team manager" and remain with the chaperone at all times once the game begins.
7. Respect the property and possessions of others. If caught with another's property (without the owner's permission), the player will be placed on the first infraction and possible removal from further participation in the tournament. All players who are removed from the tournament, will remain with the team; however, will be unable to participate in any further games, unable to suit up with the team, will become a "team manager" and remain with the chaperone at all times once the game begins.*

SECTION III

As an Hilina'i player, I will:

1. Provide a positive role model and atmosphere in practices and matches, being courteous, respectful and polite to all coaches, officials, players, parents, and other chaperones.
2. Treat my team members with respect and avoid any negative criticism.
3. Be punctual at all practices and tournaments. I will communicate with my coach if unable to attend a practice and/or tournament.

SECTION IV
Disciplinary Guidelines

If any of the above rules are confirmed violated by the head coach, the first infraction will take effect (except for those infractions where indicated by an asterisk as zero tolerance).

1. First infraction: After confirmation of the infraction, the player will be suspended from playing during the next day. Parents will be notified.

2. Second infraction: After confirmation of the infraction, the player will be removed from the tournament during travel and/or dismissed from Hilina'i. All players who are removed from the tournament, will remain with the team; however, will be unable to participate in any further games, unable to suit up with the team, will become a "team manager" and will remain with the chaperone at all times once the game begins. Parents will be notified.

*These infractions will automatically be given the second infraction. There is zero tolerance for any of these infractions, and proper legal authority will be notified. All players who are removed from the tournament during travel, will remain with the team; however, will be unable to participate in any further games, unable to suit up with the team, will become a "team manager" and remain with the chaperone at all times once the game begins. Violation of such action may result in permanent dismissal from Hilina'i upon return from travel. Parents will be notified.

All infractions will be documented and placed with the player's file. Any infractions that cannot be imposed at the time, will be carried over to the next tournament and/or the next volleyball club season.

We hereby acknowledge the receipt of the guidelines, understand the rules, and agree to accept the consequences of my actions.
